

WORDS ALOUD SPOKEN WORD & STORYTELLING FESTIVAL 2017

SCHEDULE AND THUMBNAIL DESCRIPTIONS OF EVENTS

Thursday, November 2nd

Owen Sound Library 7:30 pm

- Speaking of Home: Two Canadian Perspectives Indigenous writer Janet Rogers and Argentinian-Canadian storyteller Marta Singh reflect on identity, belonging, autonomy, difference and commonality.
-

Friday, November 3rd

M'Wikwedong Native Cultural Resource Centre, Owen Sound, 5:00 pm

- Mohawk/Tuscarora poet, spoken word artist and radio host Janet Rogers chats about how her work contributes to her outlook, well-being and relationship with her community.

Durham Art Gallery 7:30 pm

- [MAIN STAGE] Angeline Schellenberg and Kate Cayley, two important emerging literary voices, and well-known spoken word artist Brendan McLeod, present thoughtful, invigorating and often humorous work on subjects as diverse as autism spectrum disorder, the cautionary tale, and living on the cognitive edge.
-

Saturday, November 4th

Durham Town Hall 9:00 am

- Strictly Solo [WORKSHOP] – Aaron Bushkowsky guides participants in the creation of memorable characters.

Durham Library 11:15 am

- “Wondertales” Children’s Storytelling with Argentinian-Canadian storyteller Marta Singh.

Durham Town Hall 1:00 pm

- [WORKSHOP] Said the Albatross to the Ant – Jillian Christmas will encourage participants to situate themselves in an unfamiliar perspective, asking you to stretch and shift what you think you know about personal story and public knowledge.

Durham Town Hall 4:30 pm

- Spoken Word with the award-winning Peterborough Poetry Collective and spoken word master Brendan McLeod.

Durham Art Gallery 7:30 pm

- [MAIN STAGE] Janet Rogers, Bruce Meyer, Carolyn Smart—three of Canada’s most respected poetry and spoken word practitioners dazzle with dynamic word play, breadth of literary expression, and arresting subject matter.
-

Sunday, November 5th

Durham Town Hall 9:00 am

- [WORKSHOP] Hea(r)t Seeking – Angeline Schellenberg works to de-mystify and reduce anxiety around the self-editing/revision process. Participants are asked to send one piece of writing in prior to festival weekend.

Durham Art Gallery 2:00 pm

- [MAIN STAGE] Jillian Christmas, Sue Sinclair, and Aaron Bushkowsky bring a potent mix of activist spoken word, lyrical wordplay, and a talent for drama and comedy to Words Aloud’s final event of the weekend.